and fiancée, Merrill Jones.

a huge turnout. A big thank-you goes to Melanie Smith for leading the completion of the neighborhood history book — a major project that took time, care, and coordination. Also thank you to Jim Peipert, Tom Richey, Annette Gunter, and Sharon Weldon for their contributions to the book and coming out to sign copies, as well as all others who contributed stories, photos, and research along the way. We're grateful to everyone who played a part. The book is a wonderful reflection of our community's past. If you haven't ordered your copy yet, we encourage you to do so! See

Dear neighbors,

With spring in full bloom and summer just around the corner, it's been great to see the neighborhood coming to life again — gardens brightening up, kids playing outside, and neighbors reconnecting. This time of year always brings a renewed sense of energy to our community.

The book distribution party was a great success with

We held the neighborhood trash cleanup in March. Thank you to Mike Danella and to Angie Arlington and her kids for pitching in at the March neighborhood cleanup. Your help was much appreciated. Mike also went the extra mile by planting two new trees on Rosedale. Thank you, Mike, for helping keep our streets green and beautiful.

We also want to thank Tuyen Kamo for planning what would have been a great Easter party. Unfortunately, it had to be canceled due to rain and lightning, but we're grateful for all the work that went into organizing it.

Looking ahead, we're excited for this year's 4th of July celebration which is always a summer highlight. Stay tuned for details. We're also still looking for volunteers to help repaint the neighborhood sign. If you're interested, please reach out.

Thanks for being part of what makes this neighborhood such a great place to live. Wishing everyone a relaxing and sunny start to summer.

Warmly,
Brian Hunt

We are all so proud to have a CHAMPION in the neighborhood!

“ Our new travertine paver patio looks fantastic thanks to Legacy Custom Pavers! We had an excellent experience with Michael Conn and his crew. These guys did an amazing job taking out the old flagstone and installed pavers in less than two days. Michael was very helpful with material suggestions and ensured the project went smoothly. I highly recommend Legacy Custom Pavers for any outdoor project. This was the best experience we've had with any home project company. Thank you for our new patio, we love it!!! ”

Grand Champion Bronze GCHB Reydaleterrydale This is Me - KEALA

We have a CHAMPION in the neighborhood! Keala won BEST OF OPPOSITE at the New York 2025 Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show. Keala comes from a long line of champions from Breeder Gerarado Reyes of North Carolina.

Keala's Mistletoe Airedale family and 9-year-old, Stealing Beauty, and 2-year-old, La Grande Belleza, are very proud! Westminster is by invitation only.

Keala got to enjoy a flight to New York 2025 Westminster Dog Show. Her handler is distinguished handler, Christian Rangel. He expertly showed her at Westminster. He also handles the number one Standard Schnauzer, Beagle, and Russel Terrier with his wife Jovana Danalovic.

Keala is owned by Susie Mitchell and Gerarado Reyes. They'd like to thank all of Keala's Mistletoe Heights neighborhood well-wishers!

Easter Breakfast

It was unfortunate that the weather kept us from holding our Annual East Egg Hunt, but we did manage to still have the breakfast scheduled prior to the Hunt. We had a great turnout, despite the weather. Here's hoping next year's weather is better so the kids (and adults!) can enjoy this special event!

Thank you to our Easter Bunny for showing up in style!

Dinners with Tom ...

Tom Richey shares tips and information about restaurants in and around our neighborhood.

In the early 1980s while reading the Dallas Morning News, I saw an ad for a place called Campisi's Egyptian and wondered what Egyptian food might be like. Later on, I discovered that it was an Italian restaurant and at that point I really wondered why they would call it Egyptian — another mystery in my life.

Of course, since then, I have discovered the story. In 1950, "Pop" Campisi bought a bar on Mockingbird Lane in Dallas called "The Egyptian" and turned it into an Italian restaurant. He never removed the Egyptian sign and placed the Campisi sign above it, so the place seemed to be named Campisi's Egyptian. It was very successful and noted people like Mickey Mantle, Marlene Dietrich, and Tony Bennett dined there whenever they were in town. Apparently, there was some connection with Jack Ruby in the 1960s and Campisi family members testified in the Kennedy assassination probe. Since 1950, it has grown to nine locations, one of which is located on Camp Bowie in Fort Worth. Supposedly, Pop Campisi introduced pizza to Dallas in 1946 at a bar that predated the restaurant, which technically makes their origin 1946, I guess.

We have never been to the original location in Dallas (life's too short to spend time in Dallas), but we often go to the Camp Bowie facility. Our grandkids seem to enjoy it, we've taken them all there and being as it's a nice friendly space, they find it comfortable as do we. We like to go on Tuesdays for the spaghetti special, $8.99 for garlic toast, house salad, and spaghetti plus 50% off for a bottle of wine — hard to beat that. Monday through Friday, they have a happy hour from 4:00 to 6:30 with $2.00 off drinks and a selection of appetizers.

The regular menu has a goodly collection of appetizers, lasagna, a variety of pasta, and several specialties such as chicken parmigiana, shrimp scampi, veal scallopini, grilled salmon, veal parmigiana, and pizza (including gluten free) with all of the usual toppings.

Seating inside is comfortable and the service has always been good. There is also covered seating outside but close to the parking lot — although the grandkids seem to prefer that. All in all, it's a nice restaurant, the service is good, the food is good, and it's a decent family type location. I like it and it is worth a try if you've never been there.

Mistletoe Heights is a historic and excellent example of middle- to upper-class neighborhood dating from the 1910s. Wishing to preserve its architectural heritage and identity, most of the neighborhood was included in a historic overlay in 2002. Any alterations including but not limited to window replacement/repair, foundation repair or additions to the structures within the overlay must be approved by the city of Fort Worth's Historic Preservation Office and/or the Historic & Cultural Landmarks Commission (HCLC). Please contact staff to discuss the correct process for your project.
